Power to remove difficulties.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Hire-purchase Act, 1972 was enacted, in pursuance of the recommendations of the Law Commission contained in its Twentieth Report, mainly to regulate the rights and duties of parties to hire-purchase agreements. As the developmental activities undertaken by organisations in the small-scale industrial sector are mainly through the device of letting out machinery, implements, etc., on hire-purchase basis and as the provisions of the Hire-purchase Act involved devising of new forms and hire-purchase agreements, etc., it was decided to allow sufficient time for the various organisations, the trade and the public to realise the implications and impact of the legislation and to make the necessary adjustments in their affairs by the time the Act was brought into force. However, before the Act could be brought into force, several representations were received from the public against bringing the Act into force on account of certain difficulties pointed out from several quarters in the implementation thereof. This matter was also examined, inter alia, by the Banking Law Committee appointed by the Reserve Bank of India. The Committee on Petitions of the Rajya Sabha had occasion to consider the question of bringing into force the Hire-purchase Act and recommended that immediate steps be taken to notify and implement the Hire-purchase Act without any further delay. In view of this, it is felt that the Act should be brought into force as early as possible after meeting the main difficulties noticed.

2. The subject dealt with by the Act is of a highly technical nature with far-reaching consequences. The difficulties are mainly in respect of matters relating to the limiting of hire-purchase charges, the right of hirer to purchase at any time with rebate, the modifications necessary to bring the Hire-purchase Act in harmony with the present economical and other conditions and the absence of any provision for making rules for bringing out more clearly the implications of some of the provisions of the Act and particularly those which involve mathematical calculations. These difficulties appeared to be felt more in respect of hire-purchase agreements providing for obtaining credit for such assets as are intended for generating income of a business. For the purpose of removing these difficulties, the proposed legislation makes suitable amendments in the parent Act on the analogy of similar legislations in various other countries.

3. Certain other amendments of administrative or procedural nature, which would be helpful and beneficial particularly to the hirers, are also proposed. In view of the highly technical nature of the subject matter of the parent Act, a provision is also being included, on usual pattern, empowering the Central Government to remove difficulties by making suitable orders.

4. This Bill seeks to achieve the above objectives.

NEW DELHI;

The 6th April, 1989.

B. SHANKARANAND.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 16 of the Bill seeks to insert a new section 32 in the Hire-purchase Act, 1972 (26 of 1972) empowering the Central Government to make rules to carry out the provisions of the said Act. The rules may provide for the form and manner in which all or any of the particulars shall be specified in every hire-purchase agreement, the additional particulars which shall be specified in every such hire-purchase agreement and other matters which may be required for bringing out more clearly the implications of some of the provisions of the parent Act and particularly those which involve mathematical calculations.

2. In view of the nature of legislation relating to hire-purchase involved, clause 16 of the Bill also inserts a new section 33 in the Hire-purchase Act empowering the Central Government to remove by order any difficulty which may arise in giving effect to the provisions of that Act. This is by way of abundant caution and for covering difficulties which may arise. It has, however, been provided that no such order shall be made after the expiry of a period of 5 years from the commencement of the Hire-purchase Act. It has also been provided that a copy of every such order made shall be laid before each House of Parliament.

3. The matters in relation to which rules or orders may be made are matters of administrative detail and procedure and it is difficult to provide for the same in the Bill itself. The delegation of legislative power is, therefore, of a normal character.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

During the past decade or so there has been a persistent demand for the establishment of a Central University in Assam. A decision was taken in principle to set up a Central University in Assam in 1985.

2. There have been competing claims for location of the University between Brahmaputra valley and Barak valley. Considering the total development of higher education in the State and the fact that an Indian Institute of Technology is being established in the northern region of Assam, it is proposed that the Central University may be located in the Cachar district.

3. The Bill seeks to establish a teaching-cum-affiliating University in the Cachar district in the Barak valley of Assam.

NEW DELHI;

P. SHIV SHANKER.

The 7th April, 1989

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 3 of the Bill provides for the establishment of a Central University in Cachar District of Assam. The total estimated expenditure on the establishment of the Assam University would be approximately Rs. 70.18 crores, out of which Rs. 50.85 crores would be non-recurring and Rs. 19.33 crores would be recurring. A major part of this expenditure is likely to be incurred during the VIII Plan period. The balance amount would spill over into the subsequent Plan.

2. The above-mentioned expenditure will be met by the University Grants Commission from its plan allocations.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 27 of the Bill provides that the first Statutes are those set out in the Schedule to the Bill. It also empowers the Executive Council of the University to make a new or additional Statutes or amend or repeal the Statutes of the University subject to the assent of the Visitor. Sub-clause (5) of the aforesaid clause empowers the Visitor also to make new or additional Statutes or amend or repeal the Statutes of the University during the period of three years immediately after the commencement of the Act. Sub-clause (6) further empowers the Visitor to direct the University to make provisions in the Statutes in respect of any matter specified by him and if the Executive Council is unable to implement such directions within sixty days of its receipt, the Visitor may, after considering the request, if any, communicated by the Executive Council for its inability to comply with such directions, make or amend the Statutes suitably. The matters in respect of which the Executive Council and the Visitor may make, amend or repeal Statutes include the constitution, powers and functions of the authorities and other bodies of the University, the appointment of officers and teachers of the University, the conditions of service of the employees of the University and other such matters.

2. Clause 28 of the Bill empowers the Vice-Chancellor of the University to make the first Ordinances of the University with the previous approval of the Central Government and provides that the Ordinances so made may be amended, repealed or added to at any time by the Executive Council in the manner prescribed by the Statutes. The matters in respect of which Ordinances may be made, or as the case may be, amended, repealed or added to, relate to admission of students. Courses of Study, medium of instruction and examination, the establishment of Centres of Studies, Boards of Studies, Special Centres, Specialised Laboratories and the manner of co-operation and collaboration with other Universities and authorities, the management of Colleges and Institutions established by the University and other such matters.

3. Clause 29 of the Bill enables the authorities of the University to make Regulations, consistent with the Act, the Statutes and the Ordinances for the conduct of their own business and that of the Committees appointed by them and not provided for by the Act, the Statutes or the Ordinances.

4. The matters for which Statutes, Ordinances or Regulations may be made pertain to matters of procedure or detail and it is hardly possible to provide for them in the Bill. The delegation of legislative powers is, therefore, of a normal character.

SUDARSHAN AGARWAL,
Secretary-General.
